FIRST READING

Ezekiel 36:24-28

A reading from the Book of the Prophet Ezekiel

Thus says the Lord God: I will take you away from among the nations, gather you from all the foreign lands, and bring you back to your own land.

I will sprinkle clean water upon you to cleanse you from all your impurities, and from all your idols I will cleanse you.

I will give you a new heart and place a new spirit within you, taking from your bodies your stony hearts and giving you natural hearts.

I will put my spirit within you and make you live by my statutes, careful to observe my decrees.

You shall live in the land I gave your fathers; you shall be my people, and I will be your God.

The word of the Lord

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

R. Lord, Send out your spirit, and renew the face of the earth.

Bless the LORD, my soul!
LORD, my God, you are great indeed!
How manifold are your works, LORD!
In wisdom you have wrought them all;
the earth is full of your creatures.

R. Lord, Send out your spirit, and renew the face of the earth.

They all look to you
to give them food in due time.
When you give it to them, they gather it;
when you open your hand, they are filled with good things.

R. Lord, Send out your spirit, and renew the face of the earth.

When you send forth your spirit, they are created,
and you renew the face of the earth.
May the glory of the LORD endure forever;
may the LORD be glad in his works!

R. Lord, Send out your spirit, and renew the face of the earth.

I will sing to the LORD all my life;
I will sing praise to my God while I live.
Pleasing to him be my theme;
I will be glad in the LORD.

R. Lord, Send out your spirit, and renew the face of the earth.

2ND READING

Acts 2:1-6, 14, 22b-23, 32-33

A Reading from the Acts of the Apostles

When the time for Pentecost was fulfilled, they were all in one place together. And suddenly there came from the sky a noise like a strong driving wind, and it filled the entire house in which they were. Then there appeared to them tongues as of fire, which parted and came to rest on each one of them. And they were all filled with the Holy Spirit and began to speak in different tongues, as the Spirit enabled them to proclaim.

Now there were devout Jews from every nation under heaven staying in Jerusalem. At this sound, they gathered in a large crowd, but they were confused because each one heard them speaking in his own language. Then Peter stood up with the Eleven, raised his voice, and proclaimed to them, "You who are Jews, indeed all of you staying in Jerusalem. Let this be known to you, and listen to my words. Jesus the Nazorean was a man commended to you by God with mighty deeds, wonders, and signs, which God worked through him in your midst, as you yourselves know. This man, delivered up by the set plan and foreknowledge of God, you killed, using lawless men to crucify him. God raised this Jesus; of this we are all witnesses. Exalted at the right hand of God, he received the promise of the Holy Spirit from the Father and poured it forth, as you both see and hear."

The word of the Lord

GOSPEL

John 15:18-21, 26-27

A reading from the holy Gospel according to John

"If the world hates you, realize that it hated me first. If you belonged to the world, the world would love its own; but because you do not belong to the world, and I have chosen you out of the world, the world hates you. Remember the word I spoke to you, 'No slave is greater than his master.' If they persecuted me, they will also persecute you. If they kept my word, they will also keep yours. And they will do all these things to you on account of my name, because they do not know the one who sent me.

"When the Advocate comes whom I will send you from the Father, the Spirit of truth that proceeds from the Father, he will testify to me. And you also testify, because you have been with me from the beginning.
