Fr. Eugene's Corner

The reading of this Gospel invites us to a moment of personal reflection. It calls us to meditate on giving a personal response to our walk with Christ. As Jesus was nearing the fulfillment of His redemptive mission on earth, He wanted to know if the apostles truly and convincingly knew Him as their Lord and not as a mere mortal. Christ needed to know if they would be committed to continuing His gospel of salvation. So, He asked them, "Who do you say I am?" Peter replied, "You are the Christ."

The name "Christ" means the Anointed One. Friends in Christ, the Lord is asking you and me, "Who do you say I am?" We need to know the Lord convincingly. We need to know Him faithfully. It is not enough to declare that we are believers in Christ. We must know Christ personally, recognizing Him as our Lord and Savior, our Redeemer.

This deep, personal knowledge of the Lord comes when we read the Scriptures daily, pray regularly, and love the Lord with all our hearts. As it is written in Jeremiah 29:13: "You will seek me and find me when you seek me with all your heart." And in John 17:3, "Now this is eternal life: that they know you, the only true God, and Jesus Christ, whom you have sent."

We trust that the word of God will bless us. Amen.

Abortion Hurts Men Too

Did you know that after an abortion, 82% of surveyed men said they would have benefited from talking to someone about it? Project Rachel is here for both men and women to listen to your story and help you find healing and peace. A retreat weekend can help kickstart your unique healing journey. One will take place near Denver, CO on November 8-10 and financial assistance is available to those traveling from Wyoming. For more information or to register, please call or text the Diocese of Cheyenne Project Rachel Ministry confidential phoneline at 307-222-8430 or visit www.dcwyo.org/project-rachel

Our Church is offering Online Giving on our website at: <http://stmargaretriverton.com>. For additional information please visit the website.

Beginning Experience of Wyoming - Casper Oct 11 - 13, 2024

Beginning Experience is a weekend program that offers healing and renewal to divorced, widowed, and separated men and women. It is a non-profit, faith-based comprehensive program offered to all persons, regardless of religious preference. A Beginning Experience weekend offers support and direction to help resolve grief or anger that can follow the end of a marriage by divorce, separation, or death. The weekend can be a time for a real awakening, a re-evaluation, and a new beginning. Beginning Experience is a positive experience of hope. You can anticipate an intense reflective, possibly painful, but spiritually honest self-encounter. You will also find support, warm fellowship, and community. The next Beginning Experience weekend will be in Casper and starts promptly at 7:00 P.M. on Friday evening Oct. 11 and runs through Sunday afternoon around 4pm Oct. 13. You must commit to the entire weekend. The cost we ask for the weekend is $150.00, which includes sleeping arrangements, meals, and materials. We do not provide meals on Friday pm or Sunday pm. Scholarships are available. No one is turned away due to finances. Registration deadline is Oct 8, 2023.

Faith Formation News

Wednesday just passed marked another anniversary of 9-11. And so I share parts of a post I wrote several years ago. The dastardly acts of 9-11 were schemed in a cave in Afghanistan. In a cave 2,000 years ago, God sent us God's answer. God's reaching and longing for us took shape in the person of God's son. And the light of God's love continues to reach across time and distance to each of us. May the strong hand of faith pull us from the ongoing rubble of hate and violence. We should all pray and act so that our children may grow up in a world that is free from the logic that would try to kill belief by striking at living people. That kind of hatred in action is direct, unthinking and grisly. We may not see this cycle of hatred broken in our lifetimes, but at least we can begin. We MUST begin. Ongoing faith formation can be a way to that beginning.

Prayer Corner:

May I never boast except in the cross of our Lord through which the world has been crucified to me and I to the world.
