An Update from Mrs. M

The seasons are officially changing, and students are hard at work academically.

It's a good time to talk about three key ingredients for student success: good sleep, a healthy breakfast, and active playtime during the school day.

Why Sleep Matters: Getting enough sleep is essential for young learners. It helps brains recharge, improves focus, and boosts memory. When children sleep well, they're more likely to participate in class, stay alert during lessons, and enjoy time with friends. Aim for 9-11 hours of sleep each night to keep energy levels high!

The Power of Breakfast: Breakfast truly is the most important meal of the day! A nutritious breakfast fuels little bodies and brains, helping them think clearly and stay active. Foods like whole grains, fruits, and yogurt provide the energy you need for the day's adventures. Think oatmeal, a smoothie, or whole-grain toast with peanut butter. If you're like me and running out the door every morning in a wild state of chaos, my kids would recommend yogurt pouches, a banana, or a kid-friendly protein shake that they can eat in the car on the way to school.

The Joy of Outdoor Play: Playing outside is just as important as sleep and breakfast! Fresh air and physical activity boost mood and creativity. Even when the temperatures drop, outdoor play can be a blast and boost in-class learning — if they're dressed warmly! Help your child bundle up with cozy hats, gloves, and layers so they can enjoy the wonders of winter. Whether it's building snowmen, digging snow tunnels, or simply exploring the cherished parking lot snow hills, outdoor play brings smiles and laughter, and sets them up for healthy classroom learning as well!

Smiths Inspiring Donations Update: We love Smiths Inspiring Donations because you get to contribute to the school financially with purchases you're already making! From July 1 to September 30, 96 households contributed $485.57 to St. Margaret's School. If you aren't already signed up, scan the QR code to the right or go to the webpage at <https://www.smithsfoodanddrug.com/i/community/smiths-inspiring-donations> to connect your Smiths account to St. Margaret's School.

Kiwanis Coats for Folks: We have a donation box at the front office! Swing by to donate used or outgrown coats in good condition.

Osborne Trucking Hurricane Relief Drive: We don't know the details yet, but Osborne Trucking will be delivering a truckload of relief items to hurricane relief efforts in the coming week or two. We encourage all St. Margaret's School students to select a book or toy from home that has brought them joy to donate. Our students can help others their age whose lives have been turned upside down feel a sense of normalcy and hope. If families wish to do more, check the school Facebook page.

Thanks for coming out to the Chamber Social event at Teton Therapy on Thursday!

Fr. Eugene's Corner

The quest for good leadership in the world is gaining ground, even as the world and its population are plagued with conflicts, hunger, suffering, and a litany of other woes. The world is figuratively called a "dying world." Thus, the need for servant leaders cannot be underestimated. The kind of leadership that is desirable has been exemplified by Jesus Christ.

In the Gospel, Jesus Christ clearly stated that anyone who wants to be great must be a servant. He proclaimed, "Even the Son of God did not come to be served but to serve and to give his life as a ransom for many" (Mark 10:45). This is service to God and humanity. Jesus is our Lord and God; yet he humbled himself to become man and serve. The kind of leadership that will transform the Church and the world is that which is modeled after Christ. It is indubitable that all of us are leaders in our various roles—at school, in business, at home, and even in the Church. Therefore, we are encouraged to be people of service. Let us serve others without demanding rewards. Let us serve others with empathy and humility. Christ is our example, and he is beckoning us to serve just as he served.

Happy Birthday

Father Eugene!!!!

October 20th

As the General Assembly of the Bishops on the Synod on Synodality is held in Rome throughout the month of October, Pope Francis invites us to pray for a shared mission that sustains in all ways a Synodal lifestyle, as a sign of co-responsibility, promoting the participation, the communion, and the mission shared among priests, religious, and lay people.

PRAYER OF THE FAITHFUL

We pray that the Church continue to sustain in all ways a Synodal lifestyle, as a sign of co-responsibility, promoting the participation, the communion and the mission shared among priests, religious and lay people.

Faithful Citizenship

Deacon Mike Leman, Catholic Social Teaching & Legislative Liaison for the Diocese of Cheyenne, will be giving a talk on Faithful Citizenship. It will be in the gym on October 24 at 6:00 p.m. We will be serving heavy hors d'oeuvres so come and join us!

Faith Formation News

I refer you today to Isaiah 42:3 - - "a bruised reed he will not break, and a smoldering wick he will not snuff out." This verse is so important that it is repeated in Matthew 12:20. What we see here is a gentle promise: a promise of hope, a promise of grace, and a promise of deliverance: a promise we all need to hear; a promise that bears repeating. (And Sacred Scripture does!) We all have faced, or are facing, or will face tough times. Like you, I've felt like a bruised reed or smoldering wick. And you, like me, need to take heart, because Sacred Scripture promises that the flame within us will NOT be snuffed out. No matter how bruised our emotions; no matter how smoldering the wicks of our spirits might be; we'd be wise to heed God's Word and believe God's promises. That, in large part, is what our faith formation is all about.
