Fr. Louis' Corner

In our Gospel this week we hear the greatest commandment, Jesus is questioned by a scribe “Which is the first of all of the commandments.” Jesus of course answers him with the greatest commandment, Love God above all and your neighbor as yourself! Wow, if we could just live up to that one commandment we would truly be good disciples of Jesus Christ. So how do we begin? I think that it is important to remember that if we are going to truly obey the greatest commandment and love the Lord with all our hearts, souls, minds and strength, then we have to love what He loves. And what does he love? Well everyone and everything. It is a bit of a mind blower that we are called to see everyone as neighbor. The more I come to know and love the greatest commandment the more I realize how very difficult it is to obey.

The Parish office will close at noon on November 7th & 8th.

Faith Formation News

I'd like to begin this week's faith formation article by quoting the first two verses from Psalm 1. "Blessed is the man who does not walk in the counsel of the wicked, nor stand in the way of sinners, nor sit in company with scoffers. Rather, the law of the LORD is his joy; and on his law he meditates day and night." If we do these things, this bit of Sacred Scripture promises that we will be blessed. So - - - do we do these things? Are we blessed? There is an election looming on Tuesday. And I believe it is important for all of us to vote a Christian, Catholic conscience. To do anything less has us walking "in the counsel of the wicked." Every Sunday, we hear words similar to these: "This is my body, broken for you." May we live and meditate and vote in such a way that we never hear the words "This is my body, broken by you."

Prayer Corner:

Whoever loves me will keep my word, says the Lord; and my father will love him and we will come to him.
