An Update from Mrs. M

A Heartfelt Farewell to a

Wonderful Year! This week was filled with joy, reflection, and celebration as we honored two important milestones—our Preschool Graduation on Tuesday and 5th Grade Graduation on Thursday. These beautiful ceremonies reminded us of the heart of our mission: nurturing minds and souls for these children to live out whatever God has planned for them and become future saints! (Everyone who makes it to heaven is a saint, and that's the ultimate goal for our students!) Watching our students take confident steps into their next chapters filled our hearts with gratitude.

The spirit of the season continued all week long with end-of-year traditions that brought smiles and laughter—a field trip to Sinks Canyon for 5th graders, the satisfying ritual of desk-cleaning, and our annual water balloon rally that perfectly capped off the school year.

As we close the chapter on this incredible year, we are deeply thankful for the trust and partnership of our families. Your children inspire us daily. We already look forward to welcoming them back in August, ready for another year of learning, growth, and discovery together.

Fr. Eugene's Corner

The art of decision-making is one that demands careful thought and sound judgment. This is because decisions give rise to practices and symbols that shape generations. The early Church was faced with a serious challenge regarding how Gentiles could be admitted into the Christian community, especially given the prevailing Jewish misconceptions about Gentiles. This led to the need for a robust and Spirit-led decision-making process to resolve the issue. Because of the significance of the matter, the Church recognized the necessity of seeking the guidance of the Holy Spirit. As Christians today, we too are constantly faced with situations that demand wise and timely decisions. The good news is that the Holy Spirit is always ready and available to assist us in making the right choices. In the Gospel, Jesus promised us the Holy Spirit precisely because He knew our human frailty and limitations. He said, “But the Advocate, the Holy Spirit, whom the Father will send in my name, will teach you all things and remind you of everything I have said to you” (John 14:26). Christ understood our need for divine guidance, and so He sent us the Spirit to be our Advocate and Helper. Practically, just as the early Church sought the help of the Holy Spirit during its first Ecumenical Council (Acts 15), we are also called to seek the guidance of the Holy Spirit whenever we are confronted with decisions—whether big or small. Scripture encourages us in this regard: “If any of you lacks wisdom, let him ask God, who gives generously to all without reproach, and it will be given to him” (James 1:5). This calls us to grow in our awareness of the presence of the Spirit, and to seek Him earnestly through prayer and the study of Scripture.

Faith Formation News

Easter did not end at sundown Easter Sunday. In the Church year it is 50 days. But for those of us who are Easter people, it stretches into the rest of our lives. The women at the empty tomb could not call back the angels. The two disciples on the road to Emmaus might never meet the stranger again, but it would not matter. Life would never again be the same. And for us, life will never be the same because of Resurrection Power. How can we not go and tell? As Jesus disappeared and sent the disciples into the world with faith and joy, so He sends us forth into the world. Just as the women at the empty tomb and the two Emmaus road disciples found Christ, so we can find Christ with us in our empty tomb and Emmaus Road experiences. And especially in the Eucharist! May you meet and savor the presence of the risen Christ in your lives.

Reminder— Catholic Extension Meeting this Tuesday May 27 from 2 - 3 p.m. at St. Edward’s in Kinnear. This is a planning meeting for the church. All are encouraged to attend.
