Fr. Louis' Corner

We celebrate the Solemnity of the Most Holy Trinity this Sunday. We have knowledge of the trinity because our Lord has revealed it to us. One might ask if we can ever truly understand the Trinity, the three persons in one God. The short answer for that is no, not really. It is a mystery that we can only partially understand. However that does not give us good reason not to study and contemplate it. Our understanding of the Trinity has grown through the years because many theologians and spiritual seekers have prayerfully contemplated it and studied it. The beauty of the Trinity is God’s love. God lives in a community of love. We are made in the image and likeness of God, albeit flawed and sinful. For some reason God did not make us immune to sin. We are made in his image, not identical. We are Called by God to confront our sinfulness and strive to live in God’s love. God wants us to freely choose to be good.

Faith Formation News

Last Sunday we celebrated Pentecost. PENTE = 50. Last Sunday commemorated the real birthday of the church. This was 50 days after Jesus’ resurrection, and 10 days after His ascension. The coming of the Holy Spirit is represented by strong symbols of our faith: the cross of our salvation and “tongues of flame.” The fire of the Holy Spirit: does it burn within you? And also to the point: is the Church one fire? What are your answers to these questions? For now, I refer you to Proverbs 29:18. “Where there is no vision, the people perish.” So - - - do we have a vision? If so, how does that vision correspond to the vision of the first century church? That’s when the Church was truly on fire as it exploded across the known world. Let’s re-ignite that same kind of fire. Today!

The Parish Office will be closed Thursday , June 19 to observe Juneteenth.

Confession Time Change
