Fr. Louie’s Corner

Gratitude, that is what are readings are about at Mass this week-end. In our first reading we hear about the pagan Naaman who travels a great distance for the opportunity to be cured of leprosy only to be disappointed by the instruction that is relayed to him from Elisha, but his servants convince him to give it a try and he is rewarded by being completely healed. He is so grateful that he is converted and believes that Yahweh is the only true God. Jesus heals the ten lepers that come to him as he travels along the border of Samaria and Galilee. He expresses surprised that only one comes back to thank Him. However, he does not condemn them, rather he tells the Samaritan that his faith has saved him. Jesus is emphasizing the universality of His gift of healing. In St. Paul’s letter to Timothy, he tells us that Jesus will meet us with His faithfulness even in response to our unfaithfulness: now that is indeed something to be grateful for!

Faith Formation News

Back in September, we celebrated the feast day of St. John Chrysostom, and for good reason! St. John was exiled for - - - you guessed it - - - preaching the truth! John was made the Archbishop of Constantinople in 398 A.D., which placed him at the heart of political and religious conflict. He didn’t shy away from condemning the injustice he saw all around him, and that didn’t make him many friends. In fact, he made some real enemies, including Empress Eudoxia. This got John exiled, but even after exile, St. John continued to preach the truth—a truth those in power didn’t want to hear. I encourage all of you to speak honest, Catholic truth wherever you may be. The “world” is in desperate need of hearing it in a loving way. Let’s all strive to be more like St. John Chrysostom every single day!

Prayer Corner:

In all circumstances, give thanks, for this is the will of God for you in Christ Jesus. 1 Thess 5:18
