An Update from Mrs. M

Happy Catholic Schools Week, St. Margaret's!

From January 25 to January 31, we join schools across the country in celebrating the gift of Catholic education. This week is all about honoring our strong sense of community, faith, and service, and reflecting on how our students grow in mind, heart, and spirit. At St. Margaret's School, we're proud of the personal attention, academic excellence, and spiritual formation that prepare our students for a lifetime of faith and service (and heaven someday!).

We've got a fun week ahead! Parishioners: look up in the church to see the banners Mrs. Gray and our students created. On Monday, parents can look forward to me handing them fresh coffee and a bottle of holy water through their drop-off window - a great way to start the week. Wednesday brings Drive-Through Car Blessing adventures with Fr. Louie, right after students return from completing service projects at various charitable organizations in our community, including Open Hand Ranch, Fremont Local Market, the Senior Center, Homestead Living, Chamber of Commerce, Foundations for Nations, and Soldiers' Angels. And of course, daily dress-up days add a little extra fun to each day!

Let's celebrate together the unique role St. Margaret's School and Catholic schools everywhere play in shaping the future, serving our communities, and forming children of strong character.

Fr. Eugene's Corner

The beauty of life is that when we find a new vision, we become excited. Even more splendid is when it becomes clear to us that this vision will be a gift to generations. As Scripture reminds us, “Write the vision; make it plain, so that others may run with it” (Habakkuk 2:2). This is why inviting volunteers and enablers becomes necessary for the vision to be fulfilled.

In today’s Gospel, Jesus calls people to repentance and invites disciples to follow Him in furthering the Good News. “Come after me, and I will make you fishers of me” (Matthew 4:19). We too are called not only to follow Christ, but to support and share the Gospel in the fulfillment of His mission.

We are called to be a positive enabler.

Fr. Louis is the administrator for Our Lady of the Mountains in Jackson. He will be in Jackson from January 16 through January 27th. This is not a vacation. He will be working for both parishes during this time so if you need to contact him you are welcome to do so. Fr. Eugene will also be available at St. Margaret’s.

Lent is quickly approaching! Ash Wednesday is February 18. We would like to start planning for the Soup Suppers and a Fish Fry. If you are interesting in hosting a Soup Supper please call the Parish Office so we can get you on the calendar. Father Louis is strongly encouraging us to join in fellowship with the meals before doing the Stations of the Cross.

Confirmation Parent’s Meeting
February 4 - 5:00 p.m. School Library

Faith Formation - Some of our people were told we wouldn’t have Faith Formation this week because Becky is gone but Tony and Morgan are here so we will have it. See you there!!

The RCCW monthly luncheon will be Wednesday February 11 at 11:30 a.m. at the Depot If you are new and interested in joining us contact the parish office at 856-3757.

Saint John Bosco: Mission to Love

Flavio Insinna gives a winning performance as John Bosco, the great priest and educator of youth. Beautifully filmed in Italy, this epic movie dramatizes the many challenges that he had to overcome from his childhood all the way to founding his religious order.

Faith Formation News

We’ve all heard it before: if it sounds too good to be true then it probably IS too good to be true. How many “come-ons” do you think you see or hear in a day? 2,3,8? How about 12? PER HOUR! We are inundated with offers too good to be true. I’m thinking here of a scene in the movie "Casablanca": Rick (Humphrey Bogart) is asked by Captain Renault (Claude Rains) what brought him there. "I came to Casablanca for the waters." "The waters? What waters? We're in the desert." "I was misinformed." Like Bogart, we are misinformed at every turn. But we receive promises every single day that sound too good to be true, and they ARE true! Because they are in Sacred Scripture. Look at Isaiah 55:1-9. You can have fulfillment “without money and without price.” That’s one of many Scriptural offers you can absolutely believe and accept!

Come join us for Faith Formation on Wednesday evening. Dinner will be served at 5:30 and classes start at 6:00. There are classes for all ages! You have an opportunity to support Faith Formation by signing up to provide meals. We still need teachers and teacher helpers. If you are interested please contact Becky Miller at 307-851-5899.
