An Update from Mrs. M

Last Saturday's Mass was a beautiful and humbling reminder of who we are as a school. Some of our students participated reverently in the ministries, and they did an incredible job. Then came a moment that truly stopped me in my tracks: During Mrs. Huxtable's announcement, she asked those in attendance to stand if they attended the school, sent children here, or worked or volunteered here. The vast majority of the congregation stood. Even as the principal, I was blown away. My jaw dropped, my heart tightened, and I still can't stop thinking about the depth, history, and faith that surround this school. It was emotional and powerful to witness such an involved, committed community. What a great way to kick off a week of celebrating our identity as a Catholic school.

Since then, Catholic Schools Week was filled with meaningful activities, but the service projects were my favorite. This year felt especially special. Before leaving the school, students reflected on our rules and the virtues they've been learning all year. They recalled virtues from as far back as August and spoke openly about how to glorify God through their attitudes, teamwork, service, and care for one another... and then they went and did it! There were only smiles and cheers when students learned which group they were in and who their assigned members were - not a groan or complaint in the house! When plans went a little awry and some groups waited longer than expected for buses, our teachers modeled calm, positive leadership, and our students rose to the moment. They were patient, cheerful, and flexible, making the best of the situation without complaint.

We are deeply grateful to the organizations who welcomed our students. We hope we served you well, but in the end, you gave our children something even greater: the opportunity to practice living a virtuous, abundant life. These lessons will stay with them far beyond this week. Stay tuned to our Facebook page for more stories that capture just how incredible this experience was.

Fr. Louis’ Corner

This Sunday through the beginning of Lent we are treated to the Sermon on the Mount in our Gospel readings. This week we hear from the beginning which are also called the Beatitudes. I sometimes think of the Beatitudes as if they were the entire Sermon on the Mount, in reality they are just the introduction to it. It is good to understand that Greek word that is translated here to blessed also means fortunate. Jesus turns what the people of His time think of as fortunate on its ear. It is still a hard teaching to accept all these two thousand years later. I have people who come to me so very upset that the church is being persecuted in our country and in our world. It is very upsetting, and those people being persecuted certainly need and deserve our help through acts of prayer and corporal works of mercy. But if we look at it through the lens of the Beatitudes, we are fortunate to be persecuted in this way. Someone shows you disrespect because of your religiosity, we should rejoice, because we are fortunate. That is what Jesus is telling us in the Beatitudes.

Faith Formation News

In a crazy world, where do we look for a sense of self-worth? Where do many turn? To unhealthy choices, that’s where. Alcohol - - - drugs - - - destructive activities. People try to be what they’re not. Certainly not what God desired them to be when God first thought them up. Some look for a sense of self worth in the approval of others. So they follow the crowd. They don’t even play follow the leader, they play follow the follower. Much of the world is like this. We want to be liked --- wanted --- loved. We need to have a sense of self-worth. A wise man once wrote: “The whole sum of existence consists of being wanted and loved and needed by just one person.” And you are! A careful study of Sacred Scripture will reveal a God who downright dotes on you! How much more of a sense of self worth do you need apart from this?

Come join us for Faith Formation on Wednesday evening. Dinner will be served at 5:30 and classes start at 6:00. There are classes for all ages! You have an opportunity to support Faith Formation by signing up to provide meals. We still need teachers and teacher helpers. If you are interested please contact Becky Miller at 307-851-5899.

The RCCW monthly luncheon will be Wednesday February 11 at 11:30 a.m. at the Depot If you are new and interested in joining us contact the parish office at 856-3757.

The Martyrs | Littlest Saints

When a young Christian girl is arrested and imprisoned in ancient Rome, she hears stories of martyrs like St. Catherine of Alexandria and St. Lawrence the Deacon—will she find the strength to make the ultimate sacrifice for her faith?
